My dear Sir 2

Thanks for your kind note.
I enclose the statement which I have just received from the Regimental Sec. There are only 84 houses in 4 blocks which are quite separate from the old huts close to Stables.
numbering about 300 or 400
I shall however defer sending the Lepers there until you decide the question convenient

Yours very truly

Military Assistant's Office

Dated Bangalore 13September 1898

Dear Mr. Puttanna Chetty

The Dewan has asked me to let you know the action I advise as regards the use of the Sowars.

It is usual when calling on the Military to disperse a crowd to leave the proceedure to the discretion of the O.C. troops.

But I think that as the Troops have been placed at your disposal you can instruct them to a certain extent without interfering with the free hand which they should possess should recourse to fire arms be necessary.

I intend writing to the C. Commdt. to give these instructions but the matter is urgent & so I write to you.

A. The Sowars when utilised should be in each instance in a sufficiently large Front to fill the street (one rank will usually be sufficient.)

B. & they should not move their horses faster than sufficient to keep the crowd on the move.

C. When ordered to clear a street or road for any purpose the Officer should be told how far he is to go, and a few extra men should be told off to close bye-lanes etc.

If the crowd offer dangerous violence I should advise the Officer to charge and secure or kill the ringleader or chief actors.

If people mount the houses and drop stones etc. I should advise a few picked men from the reserve Police being detailed to shoot such offenders.

As regards future measures when turning out the occupants of a house

I advise a strong posse of Police marching to the house and a sufficiently strong body of Sowars being ordered to clear the street for a good space on either side while the Police remove the occupants; and then the party can proceed to the Segregation Camp.

Field Service immediate

It is desirable to retain a certain number of Staff Officers of Imperial Service Troops for a short period. I have accordingly to request that an application may be made when this can be done that the services of Major R S Jones
may be retained
for a further period of three months from the date on which his present term of service expires.

16th Oct: 1898.

My dear Sir,

According to your D.O. just received, I shall try my best to supply the Imperial force, Cowars with fifty horses taken from the Cowars here.

I am sorry to say that—there is not a single tent in my Regiment. The few I had were all taken away by the Imperial Regiment.

A few tents can be had here from the Government House & from the Commissioned Bar, for the accomodation for the Imperial Service Sowars.

As soon the tents may be pitched near our Parade ground at Outkopal.

Yours sincerely
B. Krishna Row
